

VII CLAFPL – Latin-American Congress
on Language Teacher Education
Federal University of Pará
September 11-13, 2018

VII CLAFPL

VII Congresso Latino-americano de
Formação de Professores de Línguas

2nd Call

The Federal University of Para (UFPA) and the Special Interest Group on Teacher Education of the National Association of Post-Graduation and Research in Languages and Linguistics (ANPOLL) would like to invite you once again to come to the VII CLAFPL – Latin-American Congress on Language Teacher Education at the Federal University of Para (UFPA), Belém, Pará, Brazil, from September 11-13, 2018, to address the following theme:

Teacher education in times of crisis: multiple dimensions

The proposals, based on the topics aforementioned, are supposed to be submitted according to the following guidelines:

	Abstract guidelines
Coordinated paper sessions	The title is supposed to have up to 20 words.
Individual paper sessions	The abstract is supposed to: a) contain 200 to 300 words, presenting the aims, methods, results, and the conclusions of the research in a way so that readers do not need to access the original paper; b) be written in one paragraph, whose first sentence is supposed to present the theme of the paper. Next, the theoretical framework should be presented along with the research methods and the conclusions of the study.
Poster session	c) contain from 3 to 4 keywords.

- Submission of proposals: March 10 to April 10, 2018
- Disclosure of approved proposals: May 10, 2018

Further information:

Facebook: www.facebook.com/VIICLAFPL/

E-mail: viiclapl@gmail.com